MAYOR'S REPORT

Mayor DiMura reported that he was unable to have information regarding CRS for this meeting, as the Clerk has been unavailable, but would discuss this matter at the February 12, 2019 Regular Meeting.

The Borough Assessor will attend the March 12, 2019 Regular Meeting to make a presentation on the upcoming revaluation of borough properties. Colin Driver, our Economic Development Specialist will also make a presentation on the PILOT Programs at the March 12, 2019 Regular Meeting.

Mayor DiMura also informed the public that he was notified that the new Supermarket is scheduling a Grand Opening for the first week in March.

Mayor DiMura requested that Councilman Carr reach out to the Board of Education to set a meeting up to discuss having a police officer in each school. The Committee includes Councilman Carr, Councilman Dotey and Councilman Mikolajczyk. Mayor DiMura recommended to include Police Chief Geist in that meeting.

REPORTS - STANDING COMMITTEES

Finance/Taxation/Real Estate/Insurance/Public Utilities

Councilman Mikolajczyk had a conversation with the new engineer who met with our former engineer to review and discuss outstanding engineering projects.

Mayor DiMura reported that he spoke with the CFO and Treasurer and information on revenues for the budget and debt service will be available by February 1.
